Republican prospects in Ohio are im-

spired with the assurance of victory.

The pending question with Ohio republicans relates to the size of their majority.

The enthusiasm manifested at the wigwam last evening makes it evident that the republicans of Springfield are bound to make their screnade to Mr. Foraker, Monday, a rousing and unqualified success. The Plug Hat Brigade will go to Cincinnati fifteen hundred strong, and it is to be hoped that every one who can possibly go, will do so. The reputation of the city is at stake. The serenade has been heralded far and near and great interest is manifested, not only in Cincinnati, but in all portions of the state. Springfield never does things by baives, and the serenade can be put down as an assured success.

The Papal Nancio did not like this and complained to the authorities, but the American girl prayed all the more fervently and vigorously and she holds the fort! God bless her. She is an honor to her sex and her country.

Roscoe Conkling was disgusted with America, before he went abroad, and he returns to us disgusted with Europe. Evidently either this world or Mr. Conkling is a sad failure. We have yet to learn how unfortunate Europe feels toward Mr. Conkling. Certain it is that she did not get on her hind legs and howl for anguish when he set sail for home. Perhaps that what ails him.

springfield Republicans and Judge For-

Previous to the time of the holding of the state convention there were many republicans who, while they were personally and politically friendly to Judge Forsker, feared that his renomination might revive old elements of opposition that operated to his disadvantage two years ago. The grounds for these fears were trankly but kindly stated, and they were as frankly met by Judge Foraker's partisans, who by their wise and effective utterances and prodent course promoted the chances of his re-nomination. And, afterward, at the convention, there was such a fraternal spirit manifested by the friends of all candidates, and the action was so spontaneous and hearty, that it was the unantmous conclusion that the best thing had been done

It is now, in the last month of our an nual political fight, the universal verdict of republicans that Judge Foraker has made a good candidate and prodent but vigorous campaign. An important fact to be considered in connection with the discussion of this matter s that the ammunition that might have been fired at him now was consumed be fore he was nominated, consequently the common enemy has proved to be at a loss what to say against our standerd bearer The old issues were found to be stale, flat and unprofitable; so mouldy that they would not ignite. Then the Judge's work on the stump has been so earnest and yet fair and courteous, and of such an able and convincing character, and withal so prudent and judicious, that, with his wise and effective management, he has united all the elements of his party and has been making friends outside of its ranks until it now seems that his victory in October this year will correspond in dimension with those of his defeat two years ago.

It is quite proper-pre-eminently so -that Springfield republicans should unite in what may be truly considered as an extraordinary demonstration in Judge Foraker's honor. The first demand for his re-nomination came from this city, and the first protests had their origin here, also. He was selected here, as the standard-bearer of the republicans, for this campaign, and now the grand idea. George E Vincent, of Plainfield, N. J. man-Springfield republicans, of confidence, approval and congratulation, is to be grandly applied and executed, in a raid upon the judge, in Cincinnati, next Monday. It is sure to be a most significant affair, and to reflect honor alike on Judge Foraker and on the republicans of the Champion City And let us say here, that Judge Foraker is not alone an honest, able and capable man, but he is a Christian gentleman also -quite the equal of any of his saintliest opponents-and a good, big-hearted felow, and every honest man's friend and the friend of every good cause. We may well give honor-in large measure-to the present captain and judge and the future governor.

FIRST BALLOT, AT SARATOGA. is Opposition Hardly Worth Speaking Of-He Receives the Solid Support of the Tammany Hall Delegation, and Goes Through With a Rush-Who He Is.

From Morning Edition Sanatoga, Sept. 24.—The democratic state rink, in which the republicans held their convention. The morning opened with everything apparently favoring Hill for governor. During the most of the night Mr. Kelly's lieutenant, Mr. Jas. Mooney, together with Ed. Cabill and other Tammany leaders, were actively working among their followers in Hill's favor. The governor's headquarters, in one of the Grand Union Hote, cottages, were thronged all the morning, and the Jacksonian Club, of Albany, and claimed that there was no longer any doubt that Hill would be nominated on the first ballot. The county democracy, though they did not admit this, confessed that Hill's was much stronger than it appeared last evening. Senator Jacobs, of Brooklyn, is understood to be on the slate with Hill for lieutenant governor. There were fully as many ladies and promneut personages present in the Casino at 11:30 o clock this morning as attended the opening of the republican convention two days ago. At 11:45 o'clock the county democracy band, stationed in a gallery opposite the speaker's chair, discoursed national airs to the edification of all present,

From half-past 11 o'clock until the building was literally packed, a few minutes be-fore 12, Spring street was crowded with dele-gates and their followers, bands of music, followed by various organizations and crowds of interested Saratogians. As the delegates entered the hall they were each handed an "Address of the Merchants and Business Men of New York City," reciting that they believe Governor Hill has been faithful to the promise in his message to the legislature of 1885 to make an effort to give to the whole people the blessings of a pure, economical and wiselyadministered governmen', conducted on business principles. They therefore urge his nomination. The address was signed by bout 200 names. The convention was called to order at 12:30 o'clock by John O'Brien, chairman of the state committee. The eleigntes numbered 390, or a little more than half as many as figured here yesterday. The successful nominees will therefore have to receive only 191 votes, instead of 347, as in the other George Raines was chosen temporary chair-

Mr. Raines made a long speech, which was followed by the appointment of the usual committees. At 2 p. m. a recess was taken until 7:30 p. m., to give the committees time On reassembling, the committee on perma-neut organization reported recommending permanent chairman. This was agreed to The chairman of the on resolutions stated that the comp. ite had been unable to complete its report, and requested to be allowed until ten o'clock tomorrow morning. Senator Ecclesiue, of New York, moved that the convention proceed at once to the nomination of a candidate for governor and leutenant governor. A sharp discursion follawed and a motion to adjourn was lost by a vote of 148½ ayes to 231½ noes. This vote was considered significant as a test of Governor Hill's strength. A motion to proceed to nomination for governor was then carried. J. E. O'Conner, of Chemung, placed in nomination Governor Hill. The name was received with wild vells and cries of "He's our next governor!" O'Conner spoke briefly and was followed by others. Col. J. R. Fellows, of New York, ominated Abram S. Hewitt. A ballot was then taken. The county democracy voted for Mr. Hewitt, who also got a few scattering votes. The resuit was announced as follows: Total votes cast 380; necessary for a choice 191; Hill 338; Hewitt 33; Slocum 8; Flower 1. The gult was received with great demonstrations of applause, and shortly after midnight the convention adjourned till 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

David B Hill, of Elmira, was born in Havans, Schuyler, then Chemung county, on Aug. 29, 1844, and was educated at the academy in that town. In 1870, he was elected to the general assembly and in 1871 he was re-eb cled. Mr. Hill served one term in the E mira common council. At the expiration of his term in 1882, he was elected mayor of the ity. In September, 1882, he was nominated for lieutenant governor on the democratic ticket, and was elected at the election in November. Gov. Cleveland's election to the presidency in 1884 raised Mr. Hill to the governorship. For a number of years Mr. Hill was proprietor of the Elmira Gazette The governor is a batchelor.

They came to ask executive invention began here today in the Casino i elemency for Mrs. Mary Barrows, the Kittery murderess, who is in the state prison under sentence of death. Mrs. Lucy A. Snow, of South Windbam, presented a petition signed by fourteen ladies, asking for commutation of the sentence to imprisonment for life. Mrs Phebe Waisworth, of Augusta, followed with an affecting appeal for mercy. Mrs. Conner made an elequent appeal or mercy. Mrs. Conner made an elequent appeal.

Suddenly the delegation knelt before the astonished efficial and began to offer prayer. Young Brock is a powerful man, weighing perhaps two hundred pounds. Several years ago he got burt and has since been more or less atfected mentally. Yesterday he became unmanageable and gave his old father a terrible whipping. Last night ex-Sheriff Cook, accompanied by a deputy, went to Brock's house and succeeded in getting Harry into a corn crib, and they locked him in. While the officers were absent from the crib, the mad man kicked the boards off and be-fore the men knew it, had hitched one of his father's fine race horses to a buggy and started out the pike with the norse on a run. The officers mounted their horses and tollowed officers mounted their horses and followed in hot pursuit, but notwithstanding Brock's W. special attention given to the preserving Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may be relied upon for relief in all diseases of the throat and lungs; and, for the speedy cure of severe Colds or Coughs, it has no equal. E. J. Downes, Bonneau's, Berkeley Co., S. C., writes: "Some time age I contracted, by exposure, a severe Cold and Cough. After two or three months, I began to think there would be no change for the better. My attention being directed to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I procured a bottle, and began taking it. It before the first bottle was used, and I . rapidly recovered my health." A. J. Davis, Atchison, Kans., writes: "This spring I took a severe Cold, which settled on my lungs. In three days it became most difficult and painful for me to breathe. As soon as possible I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was promptly relieved and cured by its use."
